Upcoming Webinar

Loneliness Among Homeless and Formerly Homeless Individuals

December 3, 3:00-4:30pm Eastern Time (12:00pm-1:30pm PT)

Individuals experiencing homelessness may be particularly susceptible to social isolation given their circumstances, and this can persist after obtaining housing. This webinar will feature experts on the topic of loneliness and provide insight into its intersection with the experience of homelessness. Participants will be able to ask questions during registration and during the session.

This webinar will be recorded, and live Spanish, ASL, and captioning interpretation will be provided. Certificates of participation will be provided to those who complete a post-event evaluation, but no CEUs are included in this event.

Reminder: HHRC Launched a Job Board!

Is your agency currently hiring for a position serving people experiencing or at risk of homelessness? Are you looking for your next role? We invite agencies to submit open job listings to be advertised on the HHRC website!

Positions must relate to supporting people experiencing or at risk of homelessness who have SMI, SUD, or COD. HHRC staff will review incoming listings for appropriateness and contact agencies with any questions.

HHRC does not charge fees to advertise or view job listings.

SAMHSA: Practical Guide on Expanding the Community-Based Behavioral Health Workforce

The nation is grappling with a serious and growing behavioral health workforce shortage. This Guide presents strategies and best practices for expanding the community-based behavioral health workforce through increased use of community-initiated care (CIC) and behavioral health support specialists (BHSS).

SAMHSA: Behavioral Health Workforce Career Navigator

There are many options to start a behavioral health career, all with varying requirements for entry and maintenance, which often vary by state. This guide can help you understand the basic requirements to enter the field in each state.

SAMHSA: Dawn Network Watch

Understanding drug slang improves communication, helps identify substance use, and can avoid misunderstandings. SAMHSA's Drug Abuse Warning Network has released the DAWN Network Watch, which compiles drug names as they are identified in emergency department data.
