New Online Course: Whole-Person Care for Opioid Use Disorder

This course is available at no cost to the general public and provides foundational information on best practices in whole-person care that can be applied in various settings to improve outcomes for individuals who are experiencing or at risk of opioid use disorder (OUD), and supporting housing stability for individuals with OUD.

The course offers an integrated curriculum and learning experience that covers the core competencies of whole-person care and supporting housing stability for individuals with OUD, and supporting housing stability for individuals with OUD.

Announced by SAMHSA:

This new course aims to assist behavioral health practitioners in better understanding the latest language used in research and practice related to sexual orientation, gender identity, and expression (SOGIE). The course provides guidance on the most recent language used in this field. The course includes modules on the importance of equity, diversity, and inclusion in behavioral health services, and provides strategies for creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for all clients.

New Fact Sheet: Fair Housing Protections

This guide outlines the key protections for those experiencing or at risk of homelessness, and provides information on how to report discrimination and pursue legal remedies. The guide also includes a summary of the laws and regulations that support fair housing for all individuals, regardless of their housing status.

New Toolkit: Disaster Planning and Response

This toolkit provides guidance on how to prepare for and respond to disasters that affect individuals who are experiencing homelessness. The toolkit includes information on how to develop emergency plans and procedures, how to identify resources and services, and how to coordinate with other organizations and agencies.

September is National Suicide Prevention Month

The 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline recognizes the importance of suicide prevention efforts in September, which is designated as National Suicide Prevention Month. The 988 program encourages individuals to take action and participate in suicide prevention activities.

Partner Resources

The following resources are available to support LGBTQ+ populations and their allies:

- National Alliance to End Homelessness
- SAMHSA Advisory: Peer Support Services in Crisis Care
- The 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline

Partner Webinars and Events

- Opioid Use Disorder Online Course
- Whole-Person Care for Opioid Use Disorder Online Course
- SAMHSA Advisory: Peer Support Services in Crisis Care

Please direct questions or concerns about HHRC training events to: info@hhrctraining.org

Explore new training and resources from HHRC and our partners.